"What are you doing with that cigarette?"

"Why, I just picked it up off the sidewalk and I'm lookin' to see if I can find the owl." — New York American.

Celery is the cultivated variety of the English weed smallage. It was introduced into kitchen gardens in England about the time of the Reformation, by some Italians, who gave it the Italian name "celeri."

Social Side of Life

Camp McKinley is really beginning to look quite hospitable, for there are several army officers and their wives living there. Mrs. Van Vleet and Miss Van Vleet arrived on Saturday last and, as both the Major and his daughter are great lovers of sport there will be some agreeable changes at the camp which will relieve the monotony which has hitherto characterized the place.

Miss Van Vleet is a tennis champion at the Presidio, where her father was stationed, and she will be a valuable addition to the athletic set. The Major is also a good tennis player, and a court is in the process of erection at Camp McKinley. Lieut. and Mrs. Hanna are also at the Camp, and the Lieutenant was a crack player of baseball at the Presidio. He is still suffering from a broken elbow, which will prevent him from the present from playing with the Punahou, and as soon as he is in working order one can expect great things of the Punahou with such a valuable addition to their team.

Lieut. Young, Lieut. Cooper and Lieut. Garrett are among the younger men at the camp. Lieut. Garrett is already quite a favorite socially for he has been here for some time. Then there are Captain and Mrs. Schofield and Lieut. and Mrs. Schmitt who are very charming, making quite a little colony for Dr. and Mrs. Baker are staying on. We may reasonably expect some gay doings and pleasant entertainments. On Tuesday, which is the Camp's at home day, a bus connected with the camp runs from the Rapid Transit at every convenient hour; thus making the journey to the station a very pleasant one. The bus is an innovation and a most comfortable one, for it connects every day with the Rapid Transit.

The Alton place at Waikiki was the scene on Saturday evening of a very pretty dance which was given by the Misses Julie and Lydia McStocker. The Ellis Quintette Club played and sang most delightfully and a delicious supper was served during the evening. A great deal of interest centered around the Alton place and the beach residences in that vicinity, for they are soon to be converted into government property and in a few years will be only a memory. Among those present at the dance were Mr. and Mrs. McStocker, Mrs. Alton, Mr. and Mrs. Magoon, Mrs. Burns, Misses Nadine and Jean Center, Claire Williams, Irene Dickson, Ada Rhodes, Bessie Whiting, Mary Cotton, Ella Wight, Christian, Lieut. and Mrs. Harlee, Messrs. "Kim" Kennedy, Sherwood Lowrey, Churton, Evans, Lani Magoon, Alfred, Alton, Hall, Fulmore, John Catton, Fleming, Mark Robinson, Alan Robinson, Lieut. Rowell and others.

Manager Hertsche of the Moana Hotel gave one of the prettiest dinners of the season in honor of Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Humphris, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. C. Deering, Mr. Humphris, Sr. and Sheffield Grace. The table was covered with a profusion of white carnations and maiden hair ferns and the electric lights swathed with green silk were placed under the flowers making a very cool and artistic effect. The dinner, a most elaborate effort of the French chef, was perfect in every detail.

Of interest to Honolulu society is the fact that Miss Helen Partridge, daughter of Bishop Sidney Catlin Partridge of Japan, and George E. Chapin were married at noon yesterday in St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Rev. Cecil M. Marrack officiating. The wedding and its celebration were quiet owing to the recent bereavement in the family of Mrs. John M. Simpson, whose eldest daughter is the wife of Bishop Partridge. After the ceremony a breakfast was served at the Simpson residence, on Vallejo street, and later in the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Chapin left for Southern California.

Mrs. John Simpson gave the interesting bride to the keeping of her husband, Miss Amalia Simpson was the maid of honor and the groom's brother, Charles Chapin was best man. Fred Wood and Fred Dickson were the ushers. The bride, who has made her home with Mrs. Simpson for the past three years, wore for her wedding gown a becoming combination of white chiffon and silk.

Upon their return from the south Mr. and Mrs. Chapin will reside in Mill Valley, where the groom has prepared an attractive home. — Exchange.

Now that there are so many strangers in town it would not be undesirable to give the at home days in the different districts, for one is constantly being asked what they are. Monday — College Hills, Hastings street, Oahu College and all side streets to Wilder Avenue. Tuesday — Camp McKinley and Waikiki. Wednesday — Nuuanu Valley; first and third, the upper part; second and fourth, the lower part; the bridge being the determining half. Thursday — the Plains, including Thurston Avenue, Wilder Avenue and Pensacola street. Saturday — Palama, and a few others who always note the day on their cards.

Mr. Rudolph Spreckels was given a very interesting excursion to the end of the line in a private car by Mr. Dillingham. A lunch at the Halewa Hotel, which was voted delicious by the guests, made a very pleasant interlude, and a visit to the new dam which is about ten miles Waikiki of Waiwala was included in the trip. Governor Cleghorn and Lieut. Slattery were among the guests.

A San Francisco paper says: My Honolulu correspondent writes me that Walter Macfarlane, son of the F. W. Macfarlane, was suddenly prostrated with brain trouble last week. He was married a little over a month ago to Miss Alice Campbell, sister of the Princess Kawanakoa, and daughter of Mrs. Sam Parker. The wedding was a great social event in the islands. It took place in the Roman Catholic cathedral, and was a very swaggy affair. The young people went to the Macfarlane ranch to spend their honeymoon, and two weeks later they took up their residence in a handsome cottage in Beretania street near Punahou, the center of a fashionable district. It was there that Macfarlane was suddenly afflicted. His friends have been very much alarmed over his condition.

Doctor J. H. Yost is expected back from San Francisco on the next transport which will probably arrive about the first of September.

It is rather unusual with the artistic temperament to write business ability, but read what is said about the popular "Nat".

Nat Goodwin is the latest cosmopolitan to discover the more of the joy of living is to be had in San Francisco than elsewhere, and that it is a city of special charm for the man of artistic temperament. Like Hermann Oelrichs, Joe Redding, Tom McCabe and Edgar Saltus, he has sounded all the dips, spurs and angles of existence in all the gayest centres of population, and like them he has found that in none are there so many stimuli for the faded Hedonist as in the picturesque provincial city by the Golden Gate.

No American's premier comedian has decided to call this his home. Only during his present visit to San Francisco did it become known that America's premier comedian combined with his highly profitable sense of humor a very fine commercial instinct. Goodwin is probably the richest actor in the world, but he did not make all his money on the stage. He has been a shrewd investor in Wall street and in real estate. He owns property in New York City, in Boston and in East Milton, Massachusetts, and at one time he was the owner of a magnificent estate in England, known as "Jackwood" in Kent, that was for a long time the home of Lord Penzance. This property he recently sold, and then he began investing in San Francisco real estate.

While in training at the Ocean Beach he became impressed with the character of property in the Suro Heights district, and he invested twenty-five thousand dollars in lots out there. Then he decided to secure some income-paying property, and through his brokers purchased the Lafayette Apartments, the price paid being in the neighborhood of one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

Some one from San Francisco writes as follows:

Fancy gay Newport boarded up for the season; conceive, if you can, "the most beautiful summer resort in the world" as the loyal Ward McAllister dubbed it, filled with the blight of lifelessness, yet that is what a Californian matron visiting there writes me. She declares that the Newport old-timers declare that this is the dull season the Summer Capital of Fashion has experienced in the past quarter of a century. Half the great houses have not been opened at all this summer. For the first time in history Commodore Elbridge T. Gerry and his family have staid away. Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt Jr. have gone abroad for the season and will not make use of their lease of John Jacob Astor's magnificent place, Beaulieu. The Frederick W. Vanderbilt place is boarded up and on the market for sale. Ochre Court, Mrs. Goelet's beautiful chateau, is likewise boarded up. Mrs. James J. Van Alen is abroad and will keep Wakehurst closed. The O. H. P. Belmonts will remain away, so will the Osgoods and the Crabings, the Mackays and the Whitneys. Very few of the "old guards" are putting in appearances. Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs is in Germany and she has not entertained for several years. Mrs. "Snyve" Fish will spend most of her time at her country place on the Hudson. Good lady Astor will be at Beechwood, but her entertaining will be pruned more than ever this year. Like the H. M. time brokers, she is getting so old for frivolities. What few old timers are left to keep alive the ancient traditions of the place will depend on young Mr. Elisha Dyer and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lehr. Some ingenious merry-makings may be gotten up by these lieutenants of the old set, but the great, the magnificent entertainers are not on hand this year to maintain the glories of the place. Will the old set ever return?

That is the question Society is asking. Many think they are gone for good. The public prints, in their accounts of the monkey dinners, routs, alleged scandalous escapades of the smart set and the doings of the from divorced, have imparted an odious notoriety to the famous old resort. The Newport set at its summer outing has become the laughing-stock of the world and the signs of the times indicate that it is time to quit the place. That is why so many of the famous dwellings are boarded up this season and their owners are abroad or enjoying quiet rural life at their country homes in the Adirondacks, or in European waters on their palatial yachts. Oddly enough, a phalanx of nouveau riche have taken advantage of their absence to try to break into this holy of holies. Already sharp action is being taken to purchase the several famous old time places that are up for sale. The tradesmen and real estate men are opposing the change with all their might, for they know that the success of these invaders means the tombstone on the glories of old Newport. While these forces are at war the reputation of the place is in the hands of Elisha Dyer and Harry Lehr as entertainers. What an opportunity for our own "Addie" Minter! Napoleon looking across the bridge at Lodi never contemplated a greater prospect.

Miss Drusilla Marx's beautiful voice is always heard to great advantage in the rose room at the Castle mansion at Waikiki and on Tuesday the favored few who listened to Miss Marx's singing were most enthusiastic. The dramatic quality of her voice made it self felt, and she was thanked again and again for the artistic treat which everybody thoroughly enjoyed. She is not heard half often enough, and when she leaves us we will begin to realize our loss—for it is rarely we have an artist of Miss Marx's ability in our midst.

Miss Edith Williams is here spending a week with Miss Lara Lucas at the Lucas country place at Niu.

Mr. and Mrs. "Ned" Adams are at the Von Holt place at Waikiki for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Haste Harrison are at the Volcano House for a change of air.

The Will Castles, who are on Tantalus, are giving many house parties which are very enjoyable affairs.

Miss Edith Spalding expects to leave for Tacoma with Mrs. F. M. Hatch on the 22nd.

Misses Marion and Alice Roth, who are visiting in San Francisco with Mrs. Roth of the Occidental Hotel, are having a very gay time.

Mr. Fred Schultz, who is connected with the San Francisco Examiner, was recently lunched by Dr. Arthur Knudsen at the Occidental Hotel. He is getting on well and his cuts are full of artistic feeling.

Captain Niblack departed for Laysan Island this week, and during his absence Mrs. Niblack will divide her time between her friends. Mrs. Henry Lyon and Mrs. F. M. Swanzy will entertain her next week.

A charming engagement luncheon was given by Mrs. Albert Judd on Wednesday for Miss Sophia Judd. The table, most effectively decorated with pink hearts, cunningly hidden by maiden hair, was a pretty sight. The singing boys played and sang throughout lunch, and the attractive bride-elect was toasted by her friends. Each guest wore a pink lot with pink hearts entwined. The other guests were Misses Charlotte and Florence Hall, Peterson, Bessie Hopper, Alice Jones, Marion Waterhouse, Nora Sturgeon, Lawrence, Ella Wight, Alexander and M. Hartwell.

Among the arrivals on the Sonoma as the wife of Captain Basil Combs. Captain and Mrs. Combs have taken a house on College street where they will reside during the captain's stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Redmond, who passed through on the Ventura, were greatly entertained by the Irish-Americans of Honolulu. A lunch and reception at the Moana Hotel were among the pleasures of the day as well as a visit to the Bishop Museum in the trolley. The committee of reception included T. F. McTigue, P. McInerney, J. J. Sullivan, P. M. Ryan, E. A. McInerney, John Sheehan, John A. Hughes, C. J. McCarthy and James Dodd. The ladies committee included Mrs. McTigue, Mrs. Cowes, Mrs. Sullivan, Mrs. Huggan, Mrs. Rowatt, Misses Dougherty and Dowling. The celebrated M. P. expressed himself as delighted beyond doubt at his noble reception; and said both he and Mrs. Redmond would certainly come again.

Hon. Caleb West and Judge Parker departed for Hilo and the Volcano this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner-Turner, who were passengers on the Ventura, are world renowned travelers in the East. For the past eleven years they have lived in tents and frequented out of the way places.

Stanford University, August 5.—The engagement of Professor Albert W. Smith, former head of the department of mechanical engineering at Stanford University and now head of Sibley College of Engineering at Cornell, to Mrs. Rubey Green Bell, an instructor in entomology at Stanford, was announced today. The wedding will take place on the Stanford campus on the 16th of the present month. The announcement of this engagement is the biggest surprise in a matrimonial line that has happened in the university community for many years.

Professor Smith and Mrs. Bell have been connected with Stanford for so long that they are intimately known by many past classes of Stanford students and faculty members. The courtship, which has been carried on between the two for some months, has been so carefully guarded that even the intimate acquaintances of the two were not aware that a wedding of such interest was soon to take place.

Professor Smith came to Stanford in 1892 and held the directorship of the mechanical engineering department for twelve years, leaving his post last year to become dean of Sibley College at Cornell. He was one of the most popular men that has held a position on the faculty here, and it is due principally to his efforts that boasting as an intercollegiate sport was begun by the students three years ago.

Mrs. Bell first came to Stanford as a student in 1895, but discontinued her university work for a number of years, returning to graduate with the class of 1902. During the past four years she has been connected with the departments of biology and entomology as assistant and instructor.

Prof. Smith and his former wife, Mary Roberts Smith are very well known here. Mrs. Mary Roberts Smith gave a course of lecture here quite a year ago.

Manager Hertsche, of the Moana Hotel, will take a well deserved vacation and visit Chicago next month.

Ex-Queen Liliuokalani is entertaining a house party at her villa at Waiwala. She left by special train on Wednesday accompanied by her suite.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Whittin, who own a lovely place in Makiki, have gone to Idaho and the Eastern States. They will spend several months of the year in Honolulu.

Among the arrivals on the Ventura were Mrs. Mary, looking very charming after her vacation.

Miss Gertrude Macfarlane, the popular girl whose picture is given this week, is with her mother, Mrs. Edward Grimes, visiting in Santa Barbara at present, where they are being extensively entertained. She is a relative of the well-known Honolulu family of Macfarlanes.—Chronicle.

Among those who departed on the China were Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Jones, Miss Alice Jones, Mr. and Miss Macfarlane, "Sonny" Macfarlane, Mrs. A. H. Farrington, Edmund Hedemann, Rudolph Spreckels and many other prominent people.

Captain and Mrs. Henry Lyon entertained on Sunday at breakfast for Captain and Mrs. Niblack, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Hoffman, Governor Cleghorn and Mr. Scott. It was Mrs. Lyon's birthday and many friends during the day wished her "many happy returns." Mrs. Lyon is not only one of the most beautiful women here but is very popular as well.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. Klamp gave a dinner, and among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. G. Rodick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mrs. Burr, Miss Burr, Mrs. G. P. Winger and Miss Louise Girard.

Mr. B. F. Dillingham sailed for the Coast on the China.

Mr. J. A. Johnson was a passenger on the China for the Coast. He is building a fine new home on College Hills, and a little bird says that he will fetch a bride on his return.

Mrs. James Castle, Miss Nellie White and Mr. Harold Castle arrived from Maui this week.

Speaking of army transports the U. S. A. T. Sherman seems to have the faculty of gathering together the most interesting people. To be sure this trip of the Sherman was noticeable for the lack of officers, but the ship was simply filled with pretty women. However the young gallants around were not satisfied saying, for the homeward trip of the Sherman was reversed, a scarcity of woman folk, but a full regiment of 4th Infantry and a squadron of 12th Cavalry. The 4th Infantry and 12th Cavalry are made up mostly of bachelors, and the universal opinion in Honolulu is that they were the most entertaining regiment that ever stopped here. Most assuredly they were the handsomest lot of officers seen here for a long time.

Every one is on the quiver over the march to take place September 2nd. It is rumored that there will be a dance in the evening given by the officers of the club.

Tuesday evening Mr. McKelvey of Pittsburgh gave a large dinner in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Restarick at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Covers were laid for eight, the color scheme being in red, and a most delicious dinner was served.

Thursday night a very pretty dance was given at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in honor of the officers and passengers of the Sonoma. After the dance Manager Fred Church and a large number of the guests of the hotel went down to see the Sonoma off taking the Hawaiian Quintette with them. It was a most interesting sight—for every one was decked with leis, and, to the singing of the native boys the steamer, with her popular captain at her helm gently glided into the moonlit waters.

Commodore Pickers gave a very enjoyable sailing party at Pearl Harbor in honor of Mrs. Gregory and Mrs. Mac of Moloa. A delicious luncheon was served on board the commodore's yacht, "Spray," and the rest of the afternoon was spent in sailing among the lochs. Among those present were Captain and Mrs. Humphrey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Church, Mrs. Florence Macfarlane, Doctor Scott, U. S. A., and Lieut. Campbell.

Dr. and Mrs. Allen gave a very elaborate dinner at the Moana Hotel on Tuesday evening in honor of Mr.

Warm Debilitating Weather.

Many people, after a long spell of oppressive heat, suffer from lassitude, loss of spirits, and a general "run down" feeling. They need a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a medicine which has revived and restored to active life and health thousands of such sufferers. A lady recently returned to England from South Africa writes concerning this

"Wonderful Medicine"

"While in Cape Town the past summer I suffered greatly from the long-continued heat. I was completely worn out; my blood seemed to become as thin as water, and I lost all energy and interest in life. My friends recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and a course of this wonderful medicine restored my health and spirits. My husband suffered in the same way as I did, though not to such an extent, and he also was greatly benefited from the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Pills, Mild But Effective.

Major Crawford, a retired officer of the English army, after stopping at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel for two weeks, departed on the Sonoma for Australia. The Major will return in the near future with a number of blooded horses, for he is devoted to sport, and will remain in the islands for some time after his return.

Prince and Princess Kawanakoa are on Tantalus for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ivers have returned from Tantalus after they have been spending some time at the Giffard villa.

Mr. and Mrs. George Rolph of Thurston avenue gave a charming little dinner on Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hays entertained at dinner on Sunday evening last.

Mr. James Dolan, often motors from Waiwala to Honolulu and return. He says the roads are excellent.

Governor and Mrs. George Carter are expected to arrive in Honolulu by the Mongolia, which is due on September 2d.

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Hays gave a dinner party on Sunday evening.

Dr. Cofer will take a vacation in September.

Mrs. Tenney and Mrs. Nellie Noonan are having a very pleasant time on Kauai.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoogs sailed in the China en route for Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ena sail for Japan on the 21st. When they return to Honolulu they will reside on Pacific Heights.

Dr. Clifford High, at the stroke tournament last Sunday, won both prizes. He made the best score ever known on the links.

Mrs. Harry Lewis and son left on the Sonoma for the Colonies to be gone for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cooke gave a delightful reception at Luakaha on Thursday evening for the Sons of the American Revolution. A supper was served at 7 p.m., and the guests were conveyed to the Cooke's by a trolley engaged on the occasion. Mr. W. R. Castle delivered the address, and his subject was "The Battle of Bennington." It was most interesting. The Cooke's have kept open house during their sojourn at their summer home, and house-parties have been in order from one week's end to the other.

Mrs. Wallbridge has gone to Pukoo, Molokai, for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox arrived from Kauai this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Kimball are visiting the Francis Gays.

Two new companies of Coast Artillery are expected in Honolulu. Many of them bachelors, too.

New Zealand is coming into prominence as a favorite destination for English emigrants. Its climate is said to be pleasant and its resources great and offering splendid possibilities for development. In one respect New Zealand challenges the earth. Out of every 1,000 children born there, 889 survive their fifth year as against 850 in New South Wales, 837 in Ireland, 762 in England and Wales, 751 in France, 614 in Austria and 571 in Spain.—Worcester Post
